Sunday Base Ball Games.

The following section of the criminal statutes according to attorney general Hogg, applies to base ball parks when an admission fee is charged:

"Any merchant, grocer, or dealer in wares or merchandise or trader in any business whatsoever, or proprietor of any place of public amusement, or agent or employee of any such person, who shall sell or barter, or permit his place of business or place of public amusement to be open for purpose of traffic or public amusement on Sunday, shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than fifty dollars. The term place of public amusement shall be construed to mean circuses, theatres, variety theatres, and such other amusements as are exhibited and for which an admission fee is charged; and shall include dances at disorderly houses, low dives, and places of like character, with or without fees for admission."

Business Notice.

CLARA SEARS.

A Fine Offer.

You want hay, corn, bran, wood, chickens, eggs, butter, a cow and calf, or have you anything to sell or barter, see Geo. B. Lambdin. I do business at present under my hat, and can be found on the street after nine o'clock until four. GEO. B. LAMBDIN.

I will buy your cow and let you keep her as long as you buy feed from me, or will bring you a cow, if you have none.

My Looking Glass.

Having fully made up my mind and by practical test, demonstrated the feasibility of the Cash System in the Grocery Business, I shall continue on the same line only and shall make great efforts to meet the most rapid competition. Playing straight to the line, letting the chips fall where they may. And I take this method of soliciting the patronage of the people of Waco, who pay for these groceries, assuring all that my goods shall be the best, my prices the lowest, my service unexcelled, my efforts to please unbounded. A trial is anxiously desired from all who see this looking-glass, by
